DAYTON, Ohio, February 6, 1969 --- "Six Characters in Search of an Author" by Luigi Pirandello, which helped to win its Italian author the Nobel Prize for literature 34 years ago, will open February 14 for a weekend performance by the University of Dayton Players.

Pirandello's greatest triumph is an incisive and moving play of dramatic characters that become human. Its theme is the enigma of personality and is as relevant today as it was when first produced.

"Six Characters in Search of an Author" will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the Boll Theater on February 14, 15 and 16. Tickets are $1.25 for students and faculty and $1.75 for all others not connected with the University. They may be obtained by writing to the University of Dayton Players, 300 College Park Avenue, or at the box office in the Kennedy Union.
